

RESERVE BANK OF VANUATU

VACANCY

FINANCIAL INCLUSION ANALYST, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

The Reserve Bank of Vanuatu invites applications for the position of Financial Inclusion Analyst, in the Financial Inclusions Unit under Governor's Office. The position reports directly to the Financial Inclusion Manager and the Governor. The successful candidate will be primarily responsible for supporting and assisting in the development of a financial system that pursues the following objectives; achieving greater economic efficiency through innovative payment solutions; empowered and responsible financial consumers; development of deep and dynamic financial markets and safeguarding the stability of the financial system.

- Assists in providing and leading research on financial system development, financial inclusion itself and its products and initiatives.
- Assists in micro-finance, financial literacy initiatives to determine their effectiveness, are soundly developed, and implemented.
- Collecting, mentoring and analyzing statistical data, information, reports and other documents on the financial system to inform its development
- Assist in ensuring a structured reporting system and reports on financial inclusion and initiatives.
- Help identify best practices for financial systems and financial inclusion development, including the use of regulations and guidelines and assist in advising on their developments and applications
- Draft financial development analysis and advice where appropriate and advise on Bank's stance and relevancy on such issues
- Develop consumer education strategies and implement consumer education programs
- Formulate policies and regulations on conduct of financial service providers
- Identify and implement the appropriate institutional arrangements to safeguard consumer interest
- Measure and monitor progress and effectiveness of initiatives to promote financial inclusion and financial literacy agenda through appropriate means
- Assist in administering the National Payments Systems act and supporting regulations and guidelines
- Assist the department/unit where appropriate and liaise with international institutions, particularly in regards to the acquisition, exchange, analysis and use of research findings, regarding financial inclusion matters
- Assist to successfully organise Unit's/Bank's workshops and events, including preparation of press releases and follow up requests for meetings.
- Performing other duties as requested from time to time by superiors.

Applicants must possess a Degree in Banking and Finance, Economics or related Commerce discipline. He/She should have strong analytical skills, sound understanding of Central banking, and a high degree of accuracy and PC literacy. An understanding of Financial Inclusion development initiatives and money markets is necessary. A minimum of four years of professional experience in Banking, Finance or Economics or relevant commerce field is required.

General Conditions:

An attractive remuneration package will be offered which will commensurate with qualification and experience. Applicants should be fluent in both written and spoken English and have a good understanding of French.

Written applications should include curriculum vitae, the names and addresses of three (3) referees, copies of relevant qualifications (Degree, post graduate diploma, certificates, etc.,) and must be supported by certified academic transcripts. Applicants without certified academic transcripts will not be considered.

All applications should be received no later than Monday May 15th 2018 and addressed to:

The Governor
Reserve Bank of Vanuatu
Private Mail Bag 9062
Port Vila
VANUATU
sathy@rbv.gov.vu

The Reserve Bank is an equal opportunity employer